

Dr Deepak Kochhar Co

Quality Appliances Pvt Ltd (QAPL), now known as M/s Quality Techno Advisors Ltd (QTAPL), a Videocon company, says people with direct knowledge of the matter. The entry placed under "contingencies" states that QTAPL gave performance guarantee in favour of another company on behalf of NuPower Renewables Pvt Ltd, a company belonging to Dr Deepak Kochhar. It had asked Kochhar to produce the default guarantee executed by QTAPL. The company had also asked Kochhar to explain why a Videocon company, as per Kochhar's narrative, gave performance guarantee on behalf of his company, which continued till 2015-16. People with direct knowledge of the matter told ET that after recording Kochhar's statement on July 19, ED sent two reminders (in August) seeking details of these documents. Kochhar's statement was recorded under Section 50 of the Prevention of Money Laundering Act (PMLA), which is admissible in court. The Central Bureau of Investigation (CBI) is also investigating the alleged quid pro quo deal in loan transactions. Kochhar's wife and former ICICI bank chief Chanda Kochhar and Videocon group managing director Venugopal Dhoot are co-accused in the case. On Tuesday, Deepak Kochhar was remanded to custodial interrogation of ED till September 19.

by 8-12% in the past two months and may remain firm as buying by domestic medical textile sector and overseas market has picked up, trade bodies said. "Sale of organic cotton and yarn has increased and supplies are limited," said Ashwin Chandra, chairman of Southern India Mills Association. He said that in the short term, prices may further increase. Organic cotton prices have increased by 8% to 12% to Rs 39,000 per candy of 356/kg each, he said. Also, prices have increased by over 15% to Rs 210 per kg for export quality 30s carded yarn, he added. "Demand has increased from medical textiles sector; which is making surgical gowns and masks, and we expect it to remain strong in the long run, keeping prices firm," said T Rajkumar, chairman of Confederation of Indian Textile Industry.
